

Calentamiento

Translate the following dialogue...

- Good Morning Class! My name is Mrs. Ramirez.
- Good Morning Mrs. Ramirez!
- Seat down, please and take the book out.
- (Student) Can I go to the bathroom, please?
- Yes. What is your name?
- My name is Peter. How are you, Mrs. Ramirez?
- Very well, thank you.

Piensa....

- Consider the following people and tell me how would you address them: Tú or Ud.
  - Your sister
  - Your grandmother
  - Your teacher
  - A student from another school
  - A sales person in a store

Spain

- There are two countries in the Iberian Peninsula: Spain and Portugal.
- The name of the peninsula comes from the first inhabitants, the Iberians. After them, the peninsula was invaded by the Celts, the Phoenicians, Greek, Carthaginians, Romans, Visigoths, and Moors.
- The Moors occupied Spain from 711 to 1492. Their influence is seen particularly in the south, in the area of Andalusia.
- There are 4 famous regions in Spain: Galicia, Cataluña (where Barcelona is), País Vasco, and Castilla-y-León (where Madrid is, the capital)

- There are four official languages in Spain:
  - Gallego: A mix of Portuguese and Castellano, from the area of Galicia
  - Castellano: The official language of all Spain and what we are learning.
  - Euskera: Spoken in the “País Vasco”. No one knows it’s origins.
  - Catalán: In the area of Cataluña (Barcelona)
- There are 17 autonomous communities.
- Cervantes, the author of Don Quijote de la Mancha, is considered the “Shakespeare” of the Spanish world. Don Quijote it’s believed to be the most widely read work in the world after the BIBLE

17 autonomus communities

Veamos un video...

Tarea

- From now, you will have a vocabulary quiz every Wed. and Friday, with the exception of the days that we have other tests and/or projects.
- The first one is this Wed. The vocabulary is GREETINGS, FERWELLS, COMMANDS AND USEFUL PHRASES IN THE CLASSROOM