GUSTAR

(Not really “to like”)

GUSTAR = To like

- The verb gustar IS NOT REALLY translated the same way. The verb's meaning is really something/somebody is pleasing to...
  - I like bananas = Me gustan los plátanos.
- In Spanish when we say that we like something, in reality we are saying that something is pleasing us. Therefore the object is doing the action, not the subject.

A little Grammar

- To use the verb GUSTAR we need two types of pronouns:
  - Direct Object Pronouns : Me, Te, Le, Nos, Os, Les
  - Subject Pronouns : Yo, Tú, Él/Ella/Ud., Nosotros, Vosotros, Ellos/Ellas/Ustedes

ME (Me) = Yo (I)

TE (You) = Tú (You)

LE (Him/Her) = Él/Ella/Ud. (He/She/You formal)

NOS (Us) = Nosotros (We)

OS (You) = Vosotros (You “plural” or “y’all”)

LES (Them) = Ellos/Ellas/Ustedes (They/ you all)
