Honduras P. 24

Honduras

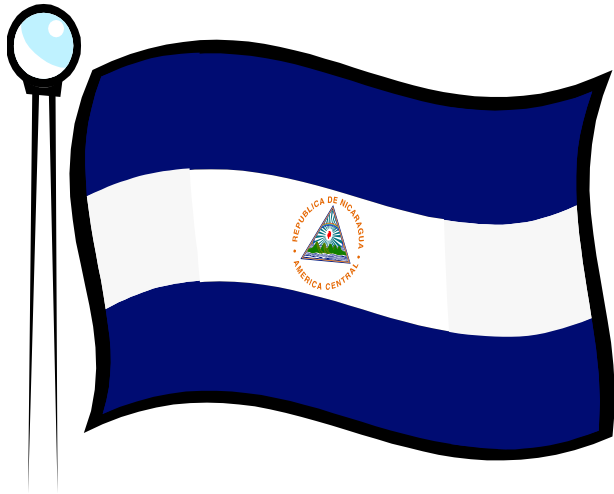

- La capital de Honduras es Tegucigalpa, which means “silver” and “hill”. It used to be a mining town.
- The majority of the country is mountainous.
- Traditionally is an agricultural country.
- Los hondureños are known for being friendly.
- San Pedro Sula used to be an agricultural center but today is industrial.
- Near San Pedro is Copán. This city is considered the most beautiful city of all the Mayan Empire. It has ruins such as sculptures, plazas, ball courts and pyramids.

Cultura: El Día de los Muertos y el Cinco de mayo

- P. 30

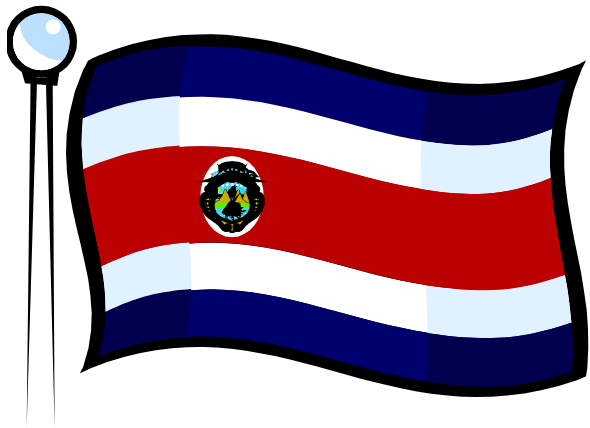

Nicaragua P.31

- The capital of Nocaragua is Managua. In nahuátl it means “where there is an extension of water”
- It is a land of lakes. The largest lake, LAKE MANAGUA is very interesting. The lake has many saltwater species, such as sharks and swordfishes. This is because a long time ago this lake had access to the sea. The lake today is landlocked .
- They have an active volcano called MOTOMBO
- Rubén Darío, a famous poet, lived in the city of León, one of the most beautiful colonial towns.

Costa Rica P. 35

Costa Rica

- The capital of Costa Rica is San José, located in the central mountains. It has many buildings and its very modern but most of the structures are not taller than 4 story high.
- Los costarricenses (their nickname is TICOS) are known for being polite and friendly...and very peaceful!
- Costa Rica DOES NOT have an army. They boast for having more school teachers than police officers.
- On the Pacific Coast the beaches have black volcanic sand. On the Caribbean coast there are tropical jungles.
